Director of Programs

COLONEL WILLIAM A. BRADY, JR.

Colonel William A. Brady, Jr. is the Director of Programs, Headquarters Air Force Services Agency, San Antonio, Texas. In this capacity, he provides worldwide support for a broad range of services programs and operations—fitness and sports, child and youth development programs, libraries, golf, bowling, skills development, outdoor recreation, community activities, aero clubs, logistics management, amusement machines, entertainment, marketing and commercial sponsorship. His directorate is responsible for developing technical assistance and procedural guidance, undertaking new initiatives, and managing selected central programs for the Services function at base, MAJCOM, and Air Staff levels.

Colonel Brady entered the Air Force through the ROTC program at St. Joseph's University, Philadelphia, PA in June 1973. He has held a variety of jobs at base, major command, field operating agency, and air staff. As Commander of the 55th Services Squadron, he led his unit to 14 ACC and Air Force annual awards. As Commander, 86th Services Squadron, he led his unit to 29 USAFE and Air force annual awards. Colonel Brady was born November 7, 1951, in Lyndhurst, New Jersey. His wife, Melanie, is a native of Nutley, New Jersey. They have four children, Ryan, Christa, Erin, and Troy.
